The Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem

Travel through the Holy Land and experience both the historical treasures and modern cosmopolitan society contained within this relatively small region. Travel from Tel Aviv to Haifa, from where you will explore Acre, Nazareth and the Galilee region. Drive along the Jordan Valley via Masada to the Dead Sea. The tour ends in Jerusalem, a city sacred across the world. There are wide ranging professional visits to hospitals and clinics reflecting of all the faith groups of the region. Through visits, talks and discussion groups learn of medical education and practice, the role of women and minorities, traditional healing and medical history.

There is an optional extension to Jordan after the tour to visit Petra and see the stunning desert landscapes of Wadi Rum.

Arrive in Tel Aviv and transfer to the Cinema Hotel, a retired Bauhaus cinema in the heart of Tel Aviv, and enjoy a welcome dinner. The following morning take a short orientation tour that highlights the history of this beachside city, known for its Bauhaus architecture, technology, cuisine and contemporary outlook. Visit the Tel Aviv University Medical and Dental School and learn about medical and dental education in Israel.

In the afternoon visit the ancient port of Jaffa, famous for its association with the biblical stories of Jonah, Solomon and Saint Peter as well as the mythological story of Andromeda and Perseus. Visit the attractive Ilana Goor Museum, situated in a lovely old building overlooking the Mediterranean Sea and known for its eclectic collection. Visit Abraham's Orchard (our chosen project), an educational charity that brings children of all backgrounds together.

The next morning drive to the magnificent Roman city of Caesarea and explore what was one of the most important Roman cities in the world. Stop for lunch with time at leisure in Zichron Ya'akov, an attractive hilltop town in the Carmel Mountains, founded by Baron Rothschild and known for its wineries. Arrive in Haifa and check into your boutique hotel in the old town. That afternoon visit the University of Haifa and meet with Professor Efraim Lev, a local medical historian who will talk on the medical history of the region. Tour leader Paul Johnson will also talk on medieval surgery, setting the scene for the visit to the Crusader city of Acre the following day.

See the wonderful Bahai Gardens, also known as the Hanging Gardens of Haifa, before travelling to the Sea of Galilee. Visit Tabgha, where Jesus walked on water and also the site of the loaves and the fishes miracle, the Sermon on the Mount and the calling of the first apostles. Continue to Capernaum, the hometown of the disciples Simon, Andrew, James, Peter and John, and the centre of Jesus's ministry.

In the afternoon visit Acre, a walled port city and one of the oldest continually inhabited cities on earth. During the crusades the city was taken by Richard the Lionheart and became the main crusader port and the centre of the Knights Hospitaller and Teutonic Order. Explore the atmospheric city, including the Citadel of the Knights, the inns and Turkish bathhouse.

Next day drive to Nazareth and visit the EMMS Nazareth Hospital, also known as the Scottish Hospital and English Hospital. This is the general hospital of the city and was founded as a Christian mission by the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society in 1861. Nazareth is known for its cuisine and following a delicious lunch visit the Basilica of Annunciation (where the Angel Gabriel is said to have told Mary that she would give birth to the Son of God), Mary's Well and the ancient bathhouse.

Drive to Masada and take a cable car up to Herod's hilltop palace and fortress. Continue to the Dead Sea and spend the afternoon relaxing in and by the waters. The next day visit the lush Ein Gedi Botanic Gardens before meeting with a Bedouin women doctor over lunch and learning about her culture and Bedouin traditional medicine. Arrive in Jerusalem and check into the

Nazareth

Next day visit East Jerusalem and see the Augusta Victoria Hospital and visit the Church of St John the Baptist. Continue to Bethlehem and the Church of the Nativity and in the evening enjoy your final farewell dinner with the group.

Transfer to the airport the following day for your return flight or take the extension to Jordan.

boutique Arthur Hotel. Make a late afternoon visit to the Western Wall to witness Shabbat prayers.

Beautiful, ancient and deeply spiritual, the city of Jerusalem is revered by the three great monotheistic religions of the world – Islam, Judaism and Christianity. Spend a full day exploring some of the great sites of the city, starting with a visit to the Mount of Olives for a panoramic view across Jerusalem. Continue into the Josaphat Valley to visit the Pater Noster Church, Dominus Fleuit, the Garden of Gethsemane and the Church of All Nations. Enter the Old City and see the Pool of Bathsheba. Pass through the narrow winding streets to visit the Studium Biblicum Franciscum, a 17th century pharmacy. Continue to the Via Dolorosa and follow the Stations of the Cross to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Onto the slopes of Mount Zion to visit the tomb of King David, the beautiful Benedictine Abbey of the Dormition and the Cenacle, which since the 4th century has been identified as the site of the Last Supper.

Extension to Jordan 25 – 28 November 2019

Drive to the border, cross into Jordan and drive to Amman for the night. Next day drive to Petra via Bethany, where John the Baptist baptised Christ, and Mt Nebo, a peaceful mountaintop with views over the Dead Sea from where Moses first saw the Promised Land. Drive to Petra to check into the luxury Hyatt Zaman.

The unchallenged queen of Jordan is the rose city of Petra. Walk along the narrow siq, the pathway into Petra. The sight revealed through a narrow winding cleft in the rock is one that has to be seen to be believed. This awe-inspiring city is hewn from a towering rock wall of colours ranging from honey gold to rich red. You have a full day to appreciate the spectacle created by the ancient Nabataeans before time at leisure at the hotel.

Next day drive into the magnificent desert landscapes of Wadi Rum on a jeep safari through some of the most spectacular multi-hued desertscapes in the world. Return to Amman for a final night before departing Jordan.
