Midwifery Study Tour in the Northern Territory

1 – 8 September 2021

3 nights Darwin – 1 night Katherine – 2 nights Kakadu – 1 night Darwin

“What a phenomenal tour. So well organised and led with such a fun and welcoming group of people... All the health care visits were brilliant as were the cultural visits. My soul is so full and although I do not want this tour to end, I am excited to share my journey when I get home.”

Jodie Watts participant Occupational Therapy in the Northern Territory, May 2021

Explore the dramatically beautiful landscapes of the Northern Territory as you learn about the history and practice of midwifery in the region. Hear about traditional practices, the culture and customs of First Nations people and rural and remote midwifery.

The tour is led by Ruth King, senior project officer for the Nursing and Midwifery Office in ACT Health Directorate. Explore Darwin and visit the Tiwi Islands, travel to remote Katherine and into stunning Kakadu before returning to Darwin at the end of the tour. Cruise through beautiful gorges, across to Tiwi and along the Adelaide River; mingle in Mindil Markets, explore spectacular waterfalls and swim in hot springs and learn about local culture and history ranging from ancient times to the modern day.

FULL REFUND FOR COVID CANCELLATIONS

You can book on this tour secure in the knowledge that if you have to cancel due to Covid border closures, you will receive a 100% refund. This refund applies until the day of departure. This tour is eligible for CPD. Partners and other health care professionals are very welcome.

“All the visits were super, the scenery second to none. Some of the most beautiful places I have ever seen.”

Kellie Holtham, Occupational Therapy in the Northern Territory, May 2021

Tour Leader

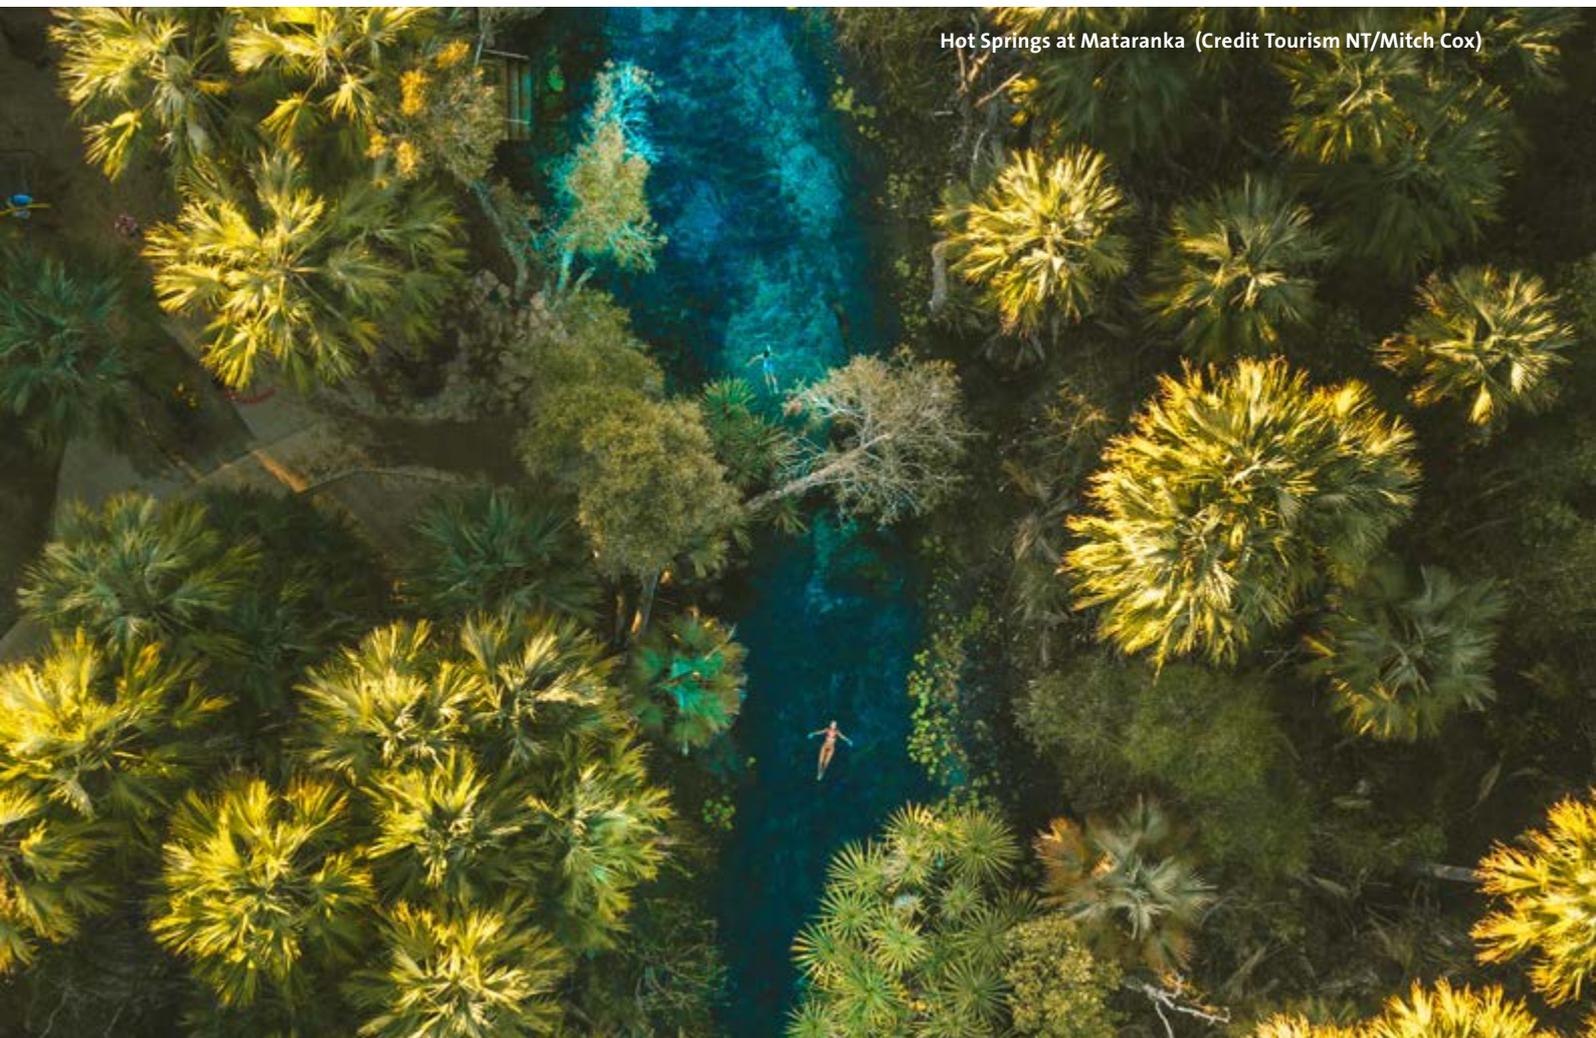

Ruth King is currently working as a senior project officer for the Nursing and Midwifery Office in ACT Health Directorate. Prior to this role Ruth was a midwifery advisor and manager of the Education Unit for the Australian College of Midwives (ACM), the peak professional body for midwives in Australia, a role she held for over 7 years. In her spare time she works clinically as a midwife through Your Nursing Agency at a variety of maternity services around South Australia. Prior to working for the ACM Ruth worked in a midwifery continuity of care caseload model at the Women's and Children's Hospital, Adelaide. Ruth has travelled widely and previously led a successful midwifery tour through Sri Lanka.

“Tour leader Ruth King - amazing!! Looked after us all well. Very professional with hospital visits (and at all times). Thank you, Ruth for your company and professionalism and always making sure we were all OK.”
