Optometry in North India

22 February – 6 March 2021

The Taj Mahal

India is a land like no other in the richness and diversity of its people, its culture and its history. It is home to one of the world's oldest religions, arguably the world's most beautiful man-made structure – the Taj Mahal – and a vibrant and colourful society clinging to ancient traditions whilst embracing the modern world. This tour starts in Delhi, a city where Mughal and colonial history rub shoulders alongside a vibrant contemporary culture. Continue to Agra, dominated by the majestic Taj Mahal, onto the pink city of Jaipur and the royal blue city of Jodhpur, to finish in elegant Udaipur - the 'Venice of the East.' The varied cultural programme is balanced by a wide-ranging professional itinerary of visits, talks and meetings with optometrists and eye care practitioners in both rural and urban India.

Arrive Delhi and check into your hotel before an orientation tour of New Delhi in the afternoon. See the highlights of imperial Delhi, including India Gate and magnificent Rashtrapati Bhawan, the President's House, which is larger than Versailles and encompasses exotic gardens. In the evening enjoy a welcome dinner with the group.

Next morning hear a talk on the background to optometry in India, with a partner programme to a local market. In the afternoon visit the All India Institute of Medical Sciences School of Optometry.

The following day take a cycle rickshaw tour through the narrow lanes of the Chadni Chowk, visiting the spice market and Jewellers' Lane. In the afternoon drive to Agra, the centre of the Mughal Empire and most famously the home of the Taj Mahal. Transfer to your hotel.

Rise at dawn the next day to take horse drawn carriages to India's most famous monument, the Taj Mahal, created by Mughal Emperor Shah Jehan as an expression of his love for his wife Mumtaz. Many have tried to describe the beauty of this white marble mausoleum, which is a perfect exercise in symmetry, set high against the blue sky. The central Taj structure is made of semi-translucent white marble, carved with flowers and inlaid with thousands of semiprecious stones in beautiful patterns. Return to the hotel for breakfast before driving to Jaipur, stopping en route to visit the abandoned city of Fatehpur Sikri, built at the behest of Mughal Emperor Akbar in 1571 and abandoned less than twenty years later. The beautiful red sandstone city remains perfectly preserved after hundreds of years. Arrive in Jaipur and check in to your hotel.

Visit Amber Fort the next morning and explore this ancient citadel with its ornate artistic style, remarkable for the way in which it blends both Hindu and Muslim elements. In the afternoon visit the City Palace Museum before continuing to the jewellery and textile bazaars to take place in the bazaar trail.

Next day visit The Eye Destination, an innovative and successful local optometry practice. See the famous Hawa Mahal (Palace of the Winds), where the ladies of the harem were kept sheltered from prying eyes, and Jantar Mantar, a fascinating observatory dating back to 1693. In the afternoon visit an Ayurvedic clinic and learn about this ancient medical system. There is the option to visit the Elephantastic Elephant Camp later in the day, where you may bond with the placid giants by feeding, washing and even painting them in traditional Indian style.

Next day drive to the spectacular 'Blue City' of Jodhpur, its 16th century heart dominated by magnificent Mehrangarh Fort overhanging the city. Visit the tribal Bishnoi villages on the way. Arrive and transfer to your hotel.

The next morning visit mighty Mehrangarh Fort, with its intricate carvings and expansive courtyards, and take a tuk-tuk ride through the old city to the craft market, passing cotton, vegetable and spice bazaars on the way. Spend the afternoon at leisure.

In the afternoon see the solar observatory and take a boat cruise across Lake Pichola.

Next morning take an optional cookery class, which includes a visit to the market to shop and lunch, or spend the morning at leisure. The rest of the day is at leisure to relax or explore at your own pace before a farewell dinner on a rooftop restaurant.

The following day transfer to the airport for your return flight home.

“I could not believe how welcome I was made. As a single traveller I was apprehensive but I have never had such a fabulous holiday.”

The Tarabai Desai Eye Hospital is a charitable trust in Jodhpur and provides a variety of ophthalmic outpatient and surgical facilities to all, irrespective of caste, creed, sex or religion. Free services are provided to the poor and underprivileged of Jodhpur city as well as those from outlying villages, and it runs numerous free rural eye camps every year through its mobile outreach programme. Visit this inspirational family run programme, which is also our supported project for the tour – more details on inside back page – and see or take part in their screening process at the hospital. In the evening take a camel safari into the sand dunes at sunset.

The following day drive through the hills to Udaipur and check into your hotel, before dinner on the shores of Lake Pichola.

The wonderful city of Udaipur lays claim to being Rajasthan’s most seductive. Its nickname is ‘The Venice of the East’ for its combination of whimsy, splendour and waterside vistas. The centrepiece of the city is the floating Lake Palace, set in the middle of magnificent Lake Pichola at the heart of the city, which also featured in the Bond film ‘Octopussy’. Visit the Saheliyon-ki-Bari, a quaint little ornamental garden with fountains (water permitting), kiosks, marble elephants and a pretty lotus pool, and the imposing City Palace, Rajasthan’s largest palace, with its balconies, towers and cupolas towering over Pichola Lake.

Project

The Tarabai Desai Eye Hospital in was built in 1986 under the direction of founder Dr Navin Desai FRCS. Dr Navin Desai's two sons both followed their father in becoming eye surgeons. Today, they are the driving force behind the operation, which saves some 2,000 people from blindness every year by the free cataract operations performed both at rural eye camps and at the Base Hospital in Jodhpur.

The Tarabai Desai Eye Hospital provides a variety of ophthalmic outpatient and surgical facilities to all, irrespective of caste, creed, sex or religion. Free services are provided to the poor of Jodhpur city as well as those from outlying villages. Every year an average of 30 free rural eye camps are organised through the mobile outreach programme. In each camp about 100 intra-ocular operations are performed free of charge. Jon Baines Tours provide a donation to the hospital during our visit. www.eyecamps.org
